ALL SAINTS' EPISCOPAL CHURCH • FORT WORTH, TEXAS

APRIL 17, 2018

This fall, we welcome a new organist and choirmaster to All Saints' Episcopal Church

For the past 23 years, we at All Saints' have experienced choral eucharists and other services enhanced by the extraordinary artistry of our Organist and Choirmaster Rick Grimes. He came to us from Holy Trinity Lutheran Church in New York City, where he had served as Director of Music and Organist for 22 years. In that post he was responsible for leading one of the most well-known church music programs in America, presenting a Bach cantata to standing-room only crowds every Sunday from late October until Easter Day.

Rick has been in great demand as an organ recitalist, conductor, workshop leader and organ consultant throughout a notable musical career that began at the age of 12 as a church organist in his hometown of Hillsboro, Texas.

After 64 years as an organist and 23 years at All Saints', Rick has decided to retire in the autumn of 2018. He will leave this church with a legacy of worship solidly and beautifully grounded in the Anglican musical tradition.

While we will miss Rick a great deal, Fr. Jambor has wonderful news to share about Rick's successor and the continuation of beautiful music at All Saints'.

Our next Organist and Choirmaster will be Clive Driskill-Smith, whom many may recall from his two previous organ recitals at All Saints'. In late May and early June, Clive will spend several days working directly with Rick and getting better acquainted with our liturgy. He will be with us in worship on Sunday, June 3. Details are still being arranged, but Clive is expected to join us full-time in September.

Clive Driskill-Smith is considered one of the leading organists of his generation. Critics have praised his “blazing technique” and “unbelievable virtuosity” (American Guild of Organists) and described his performances as “intensely moving” and “truly breathtaking” (Organo Pleno, Melbourne).

Born in 1978, Clive was awarded the Sheila Mossman Memorial Prize by the Associated Board of the Royal Schools of Music before winning a Music Scholarship to Eton College in 1990. From 1992 to 1994, he played the bassoon in the National Youth Orchestra of Great Britain and in the National Youth Chamber Orchestra.

After a year as Organ Scholar at Winchester Cathedral and Assistant Organist at Winchester College, he went up to Christ Church, Oxford University, as the Christopher Tatton Organ Scholar.

Clive Driskill-Smith to become our next organist and choirmaster

While at Christ Church, he was awarded the ARCM (Associate of the Royal College of Music) diploma in Piano Performance and the FRCO (Fellow of the Royal College of Organists) diploma with the Limpus, Shinn and Durrant Prizes and the Worshipful Company of Musicians' Silver Medal. He graduated in 1999 with first class honors in music and with the MPhil degree in 2001. A pupil of David Sanger and Hans Fagius, he was awarded a Travelling Scholarship by the Royal College of Organists in 1999 and the W. T. Best Scholarship by the Worshipful Company of Musicians in 2002; both of these funded further study throughout Europe with Marie-Claire Alain, Guy Bovet, Andrea Marcon, Luigi Tagliavini, and Harald Vogel.

Winner of the Royal College of Organists' Performer of the Year Competition in 2000 and the Calgary International Organ Competition in 2002, Clive regularly performs throughout Europe, North America, Asia and Australia. In the UK he has played at the BBC Proms, the Royal Festival Hall London, Symphony Hall Birmingham, and Bridgewater Hall, Manchester.

He has had numerous tours in the U.S. including performances at regional and national conventions of the American Guild of Organists. Clive's duo performances with percussionist Joseph Gramley also captivate and inspire.

His CDs have received critical acclaim ("his playing is immaculate ... the technique is brilliant, the interpretation faultless ... a first class recording", The Organ, England) and his performances have been broadcast on radio and television worldwide.

Men's Fellowship shifts this month's meeting to April 24

Our Men's Fellowship group voted to move their April meeting, originally scheduled for April 10, to Tuesday, April 24 at 6:30 p.m. in the Parlor. This schedule change allows them to feature a speaker from the Tarrant County Health Department. So, men of the parish, if you thought you missed the April meeting, you have a second chance. Everyone is encouraged to bring a dish to share. For more information on Men's Fellowship, please contact Kip Wright, Elliott.Wright@sbcglobal.net.

Maundy Thursday Foot Clinic in Unity Park

The Maundy Thursday Foot Clinic allowed our volunteers the opportunity, for a few hours, to serve as the hands and feet of Christ among some of the people in our community who are experiencing homelessness. At this event, Mthr. Melanie Barbarito celebrated the Holy Eucharist, and volunteers provided foot washing in the Maundy Thursday tradition. We provided sack lunches, distributed new shoes and a few basic comfort items to our guests of the day. Volunteers from All Saints' Episcopal School joined the effort, including faculty and seventh and eighth grade participants of the school's Project Empathy.

Two volunteers reflect on taking part in the Foot Clinic

By Mike Farnell

While presently sitting on the grounds of the Taize Community in France, I am thinking about the Rule of Taize:

"Do not be afraid to share in the trials of others, do not be afraid of suffering, for it is often in the depths of the abyss that a perfection of joy is given to us in communion with Jesus Christ."

At the Foot Clinic I wanted to minister to the homeless -- but how, especially? Mthr Barbarito helped me in her words for the team as we gathered: "Ask yourself how the the homeless are important within the Body of Christ."

After a thoughtful moment, I decided one way to fulfill my mission was to treat each with dignity. Two opportunities arose rather naturally. First, during Eucharist, at the passing of the peace, I tried to shake hands, look deep into the eyes and say "the peace of Christ be with you" with as many of the homeless as I could get to.

Then, as my job was crowd control in the line for the shoe distribution, it occurred to me, rather than just say "wait here," I could engage with those who would let me. So, I introduced myself to each one as if they were a business client, looking each in the eye, and asked their name.

The response: some were warm, some dismissive, and some seemed surprised that I really wanted to talk with them. I don't know if it did much for them, but it gave me a different perspective that continues to haunt me in the way that God so often can.

By Harriett Shadle

Serving in the Foot Clinic at Unity Park was such an eye-opener and a humbling experience! To see the needs of so many individuals was overwhelming. Most were extremely appreciative to us and to the young students from All Saints' School who handled themselves so maturely. I will definitely serve again.

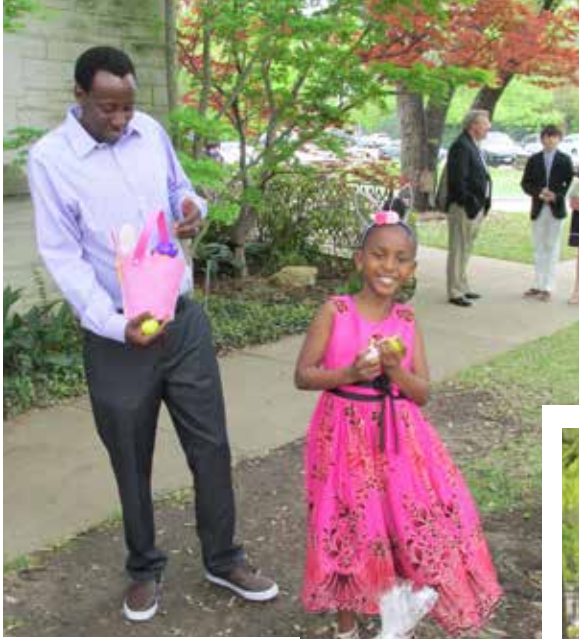

Queuing up for shoes: People who hoped to receive a pair of shoes formed a line to receive them.

THANK YOU TO ALL OF OUR FOOT CLINIC VOLUNTEERS & DONORS

Easter tide!*

ALL SAINTS' EPISCOPAL CHURCH
ALL WHO SERVED DURING HOLY WEEK & EASTER

Our services for Holy Week and Easter Day All Saints' were meaningful and beautiful in every way. As a church, we are thankful for the contributions of every parishioner who served on the Altar Guild; all who worked to arrange our Easter flowers; choir members who sang first in sorrow and then in joy; those who read the Scripture, carried crosses, torches and incense; and all who greeted parishioners and visitors and welcomed them to All Saints'. Parishioners also worked hard to make The Easter Hoppening luncheon and egg hunt a success. We have endeavored to thank every person who helped with Holy Week and Easter but will probably fall short of recognizing everyone. For anyone whose work is not recognized here, we also extend our thanks (and apologies).
